Negro Suspect Held in Paris Jail May Be Murderer.

Upon the suspicion of being an accomplice in the murder of a C. & O. railroad brakeman at Fink, Va., on October 19, 1912, a negro giving his name as Joe Bennett but who is believed to be Charley Lawrence, alias "Geetch," is being held at the Paris Jail awaiting identification.

The arrest of the negro was made Tuesday morning by Patrolman Fred Link, of the Paris Police force, who gained information as to the whereabouts of the negro. He was taken into custody at the Simms construction camp near Pointdexter, where he was working on the L. & N. double track, and was brought to Paris Tuesday afternoon.

The negro, it is believed, is connected with the murder of Fred Kelley, a railroad brakeman at Fink, Va., last October. He is said to have been in company with Charles Greenlee, when the crime was committed. The men escaped after the killing and have since been at large.

According to a statement of Bennett he was in company with Greenlee last Friday night, when the latter visited the railroad camp, and that he went in the direction of Cincinnati. He stoutly protests his innocence of any connection with the crime for which he is being held on suspicion and declares he was never in Virginia. The marks of identification compare very favorably with the description sent out by the authorities at Bluefields, W. Va. He is about five feet ten inches tall, weighs 175 pounds, black skin, and has a scar on the left side of his face, about one and a half inches long. He also has a very distinct scar on his neck.

Immediately after the arrest of the negro the authorities at Bluefield were notified and Patrolman Link was instructed to hold the man until he could be identified. A telephone message received from Mr. Copenhagen, superintendent of the C. & O. railroad yesterday morning was to the effect that the description compared very favorably with that of the negro wanted and instructed that he be held pending an investigation and a determined effort to identify the man, who he says is very likely to be the one wanted for the crime.

A letter received from the Baldwin-Felt Detective Agency at Bluefields, W. Va., yesterday by Patrolman Link, was to the effect that the description given of the negro left the impression that he was the man wanted, and stated that a member of the agency would be in Paris in a few days to identify him.

Daughters and Guards to Meet.

The Daughters of the Confederacy will meet at their rooms in the court house Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. The Hamilton Guards will meet with them at the same hour. A full attendance is requested.

Turley Deed Upheld By Court.

In the Carlisle Circuit Court Wednesday the suit of Mrs. Elizabeth Collier and other heirs of the late John T. Turley, a wealthy farmer of Nicholas, who died some time ago, to set aside the deed conveying to John Turley Jordon and James Jordon, one of the best farms in Nicholas county, was decided by Judge Fryer, who upheld the deed. The case will probably go to the Court of Appeals. The Jordon children who are the beneficiaries are the sons of Mrs. Elizabeth Jordon, of this city.

Put New Hempbreaker in Operation.

Mr. Frank O'Neal, of this city, inventor of the new hempbreaking machine which bids fair to stimulate the hemp growing industry in Kentucky, which for the past several years has been on a decline, owing to the inability of the producers to secure labor in breaking out the fibre, is in Woodford county where he is superintending the operation of one of the machines.

The hemp breaker, which was first tested about seven years ago has undergone many improvements until last year he returned from Philadelphia, with one of his latest models. It was placed in operation on the Camden farm, in Woodford county, and the work was very satisfactory.

Reports from Mr. O'Neal are to the effect that the machine is working with remarkable success, and he is turning out as much hemp in one day as it was possible for twenty men to break by hand.

Will Furnish Room in Hospital.

To perpetuate the name of her father, who for a number of years, was a prominent citizen of Paris and assist in equipping the W. W. Massey Memorial Hospital, Mrs. F. J. Cheek, of Danville, will furnish a room in the institution, in the name of her deceased parent, Mr. James W. Ingels.

This decision was reached several days ago and Mrs. Cheek, in company with Dr. Cheek, formerly pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, came to Paris yesterday to confer with the hospital committee in regard to furnishing one of the rooms.

Mrs. Cheek, who was formerly Miss Lizzie Ingels, of this city, during her residence in Paris, and since the movement was started several years ago for the founding of a hospital, has displayed a keen interest in the work of the local hospital league, and since the institution was endowed by the late Mrs. Anna Massey, has looked forward eagerly to its rapid completion.

After conferring with the committee it was decided by Mrs. Cheek to furnish the room and yesterday a contract was closed with Mr. J. T. Hinton to supply and install the necessary equipment.
